Nestled between two stunning Southern Highland vistas and rolling countryside views, you will find Gibraltar Park. A retirement village like no other.

Each villa offers majestic views of the surrounding Highlands. Private alfresco areas let you make the most of warmer summer afternoons, or rug up on cooler days in front of the radiant heat of the fireplace, a classic feature of the main living area.

With clubhouse facilities right on your doorstep, there's plenty to do at this over 55's village. The social hub has a large provincial-style kitchen and is designed to cater for events. Quieter corners like the library and g
